Alex Collier – 8 July 2016 'Planet X, merging timelines, teleportation, the human genome and Atlantis'

Introduction

We are going to talk about Planet X and how so many people are experiencing déjà vu on a regular basis. We are going to talk about CERN and timelines – the last 2. We are going to talk about the teleportation system; the human genome; and end the show with Atlantis which will take us to the next webinar where we will be going a little bit more in depth on not only Atlantis and déjà vu and CERN, but also timelines.

Hi everyone. I'm incredibly grateful to have your time and your attention to share this information with you. For those in the USA, a week of revelations has occurred and horrible tragedies too. I just want to say up front, my condolences to the families of the police officers in Dallas; to the individuals in Louisiana and Minnesota who lost loved ones as well.

Abraham Lincoln once said that 'a house divided cannot stand' and that is exactly the goal here - to divide the house so it cannot stand. We are going to get into that when we discuss timelines, but I want to give you some current up-to-date information and start with Planet X.

Update

PLANET X

Planet X moved forward approximately 50,000 miles and then slowed down close to a stop again. I do not understand the reason for the movement forward, but as soon as I have that information (and I hope to have that before the next webinar), I will tell you what I know I've been told. But it has moved. I want you to understand that the planetary system that is coming in can control its movements. They cannot change its planetary orbits because of the issues that it causes elsewhere. But by passing through our solar system, they have obviously demonstrated the ability to stop, to move and to go forward etc. I don't know the reason for the movement forward, but what is interesting is that when it did begin to move forward, we had some issues with our sun. So that needs to be watched very carefully.

Negotiations are on going with the Anunnaki. I don't know where those are at and if I can get any information about that I will certainly pass that forward to you. There is a lot more information regarding Niribu in the news and alternative media, and I understand there are a lot more people who are able to see it and take pictures.

We do know that the astronomical observatory in Arizona, owned by the Vatican, is watching it very closely.

2 0:05:21 REVELATIONS PROGRAMME

Now what's interesting about that is that simultaneously, when Planet X began to move again, there were 2 news stories that didn't hit the major media. One involved the Catholic Church, and the other involved the Church of Scientology. These are two philosophies that appear to be opposite each other.

They both began talking about an alien messiah and how this messiah was going to come in and reinterpret the gospels. I felt that was interesting, and then basically the stories were buried and vanished. It was like this little blip on the screen and then was gone. This is all part of the revelations programme that has been running, and apparently they're going to do this. I keep hoping that they'll come to their senses and just say "do you know what. Let's just stop the charade and bring everybody up to speed on what has been going on and fix this. We all have to live here together." But that doesn't appear to be what is actually happening.

3 0:06:47 MERGING OF THE CURRENT AND NEW WORLD ORDER TIMELINES

At this point I want to talk about timelines and it's relevance. On 24 June 2016, someone posted a video and pictures that were taken over a 24-hour period of the CERN Hadron Collider. One of the videos was found on a site called 'ufo@section51'. That's not where I saw it, but that's where it came from and apparently it was posted on Facebook too. What you see is CERN being turned on and an energy field coming in and clouds being drawn in from all around it that begin to spiral. You then see a ship coming up from the ground and entering it at a specific time and then the ship disappears, and so does the portal.

It is actually quite interesting and remarkable footage. Just stunning. Now for those of you who doubt that portals can even open, I would suggest you get that link.

I have been blessed to be able to ask Mornay about this particular thing. He shared with me (and I can actually say this out loud because everyone else has been put on notice already), that a ship did leave here and opened a door trying to go somewhere else.

What is happening is that several timelines have been created. At one time there were 4, then 3 and now we are down to 2. The last 2 timelines are merging.

The lower frequency was a timeline created where the Nazi's won World War 2. Now I'm not going to spend a lot of time on that, but imagine how screwed up that would have been for the world. They used the advanced technology given by the Alderbarans through their relationship with the Greys, and were able to do what they did. This timeline is actually merging with our present timeline, and this is why we are seeing the speeding up of the new world order and fascism appearing almost everywhere all over the planet with these corporations and international banking institutions. They are not even hiding it anymore. They are coming out and saying that this is what it is. You hear rumours about the royal families being on the run. Although an element of that is true, you should understand that they have enormous control over the mechanisms that make our planet work on a day-to-day level.

As the merging of timelines occurred and the portal was opened and the ships were trying to leave, the benevolents did something that caused them to be looped back over the timeline that is merging with ours. In other words, they were looping back into the timeline where the Nazis and the New World Order is and did not go anywhere. They were not going to be allowed to go anywhere. So when the whole thing crumbles, everything is going to be in a nice little neat package of bad guys and rogues.

4 0:11:08 CROSSING THE GALACTIC PLANE

Why this is important is that we are still continuing to move through the galactic plane. The enormous field of plasma electricity that changes everything and turns on DNA and genomes affects everybody. All physical life forms, regardless of their physicality, are affected by crossing the galactic plane in this way.

Only one timeline can pass through the galactic plane. Just one. Now how the timelines work is this. You will have the merging of the timelines, which involves physicality, philosophy, theology and anything to do with thought.

As they merge together, there won't be two of me or two of you. It has been explained to me that how this works is that as the timelines merge, the Jay Pee (for example) with the highest vibration will remain in physicality. The lesser Jay Pee will simply dissolve. It will be as if he never existed. This is because only one timeline can pass all the way through the galactic plane. So when we get to the end of the timeline that survives, we will be on the true, authentic timeline of humanity. It's really interesting. I've never had it explained to me before in that way and that's exactly how Mornay has described it and that is the process that is occurring.

This also brings us to the concept of déjà vu. Déjà vu is happening so prevalently now, not only with us common folk, but also with scientists, theologians etc. I hear some talk about it, and others say they are not going to talk about it. But none the less, it is happening, and a lot of that has to do with parallel timelines. Things you have experienced on one, you have automatically picked up on this timeline. Things that have occurred to you on this timeline will be experienced on that timeline. And as that timeline is imploding, many of those ideas, memories, thoughts and experiences will bounce back to you creating déjà vu. Now what's interesting is that quantum physics, quantum mechanics and quantum physicists are also studying this simultaneously as all these events are occurring. I find this absolutely fascinating. The synchronicity of how all these things are lining up. That's exactly what is happening isn't it. They are lining up so that there is a cohesion of knowledge that we will be given and getting as we really start moving quicker through the galactic plane and turning on our DNA, turning on past life memories, racial memories, connecting to higher self, connecting to over soul etc. So many people use different words for these things. But none the less, that's what is happening and it's absolutely extraordinary.

So let me go through this one more time because there's a real gem of gold in this. The higher of the two vibrations will remain. So we have the new world order, which we know and can intuitively sense, is not a high vibration. It is negative field. Because when you enslave a populous, that is negative field. There is no joy. The purpose of life is to experience joy and create. It is through the experience of joy and the ability to create that you gain experience... hence wisdom.

As these mergings occur, the higher of the two vibrations of you will remain. So consciously think about what it is that you are creating. Consciously think about what you really want because energy flows where focus goes. So focus on what you want. Don't focus on what you don't want because you will only get more of what you don't want. We have covered this before, but it is worth mentioning because we are going to see the physical reality of this.

5 0:16:58 3RD TIMELINE

Now there was a 3rd timeline (and there were 4 alternate timelines at one time). In the conversation I just had with Mornay, he mentioned that one of the timelines was completely false. It had been manufactured, and they had been taking people and planting them in this false timeline. It wasn't connected to us. It was a mirror image to this timeline and they were experimenting. They were doing things. He said he would share this with me the next time. I just know that he didn't want to go there because it is negative field. I'm not even sure I want to go there anymore with the negative field. However, I wanted you to be aware that a lot of things have gone on and that we have been subjected to a lot of horrible things that many of us are not even aware of.

6 0:18:01 HUMAN ACHIEVEMENT

My feeling is that when we get through the plane and all of this knowledge and information is brought forth i.e. 'Hey look guys, here's what you've been through'; we are going to be like 'oh my god!' Maybe some of it will make sense, and some of it won't. Some of us will have pieces of experiences that we can remember where we can put this in some kind of perspective. I don't know yet. But we are extraordinary. We would have to be to go through these kinds of experiences and to be a focus of such incredibly powerful negative field and positive field beings.

When you think about the size of the universe and the size of our galaxy just alone. Then you think about the focus of energy of intention of both positive and negative here on the earth and the movement of intent that we are being guided to take for ourselves; for our own evolution, evolvment, freedom and liberty; you can't help but be awe-struck by the enormity of this situation.

At least I'm not, and quite frankly I'm in awe that here we are – this tiny little planet here – this little speck at the edge of our solar system – at the end of one of the arms of our galaxy. Our theologies talk about us as being sinners and this and that. Scientists saying that we were a pool of chemicals – a mistake... Yada, yada, yada! What horse shit. And yet, look at what we have already gone through. Look at where we are going. See the experience we are gaining from all of this and the amount of empathy and compassion we are learning from this experience ourselves. I am really quite interested in wanting to know who we are going to be at the end of this. It should be quite fascinating if not simply extraordinary.

I just want to say that I'm really proud of us. All of us, that have made it to this point. I mean obviously there's a lot of work to do. But we're going to make this and get through this, and the dark side of the negative field. There's a part of me that feels sorry for them. It lasts a moment quite frankly – but I do. I really feel sorry for them because they are pulling out all the stops and this is obviously do or die for them.

7 0:22:08 VIRTUAL REALITY

One of the things I want to talk about next is the idea that we create physicality with our intent. We have this ability to create physicality. We focus, we desire, we use our emotions and our intent and what we literally do is pull down and create physicality. We know this, because otherwise there would be no need for them to control and manipulate us the way they have.

The concern I have now is that as their power is dwindling, we now see this huge push towards virtual reality. So let's talk about virtual reality.

Someone puts on a mask; they are absorbed into a world like a video game where for all intensive purposes they are in it. They are moving, doing this and that. Most of these video games are negative field. They involve violence and all kinds of things that in the real waking world would never be allowed. But it's a video game. The kids play it on x-box and ps3's, ps4's and Wii's. There are a lot of really negative games. 'Grand Theft Auto' - things like that. Now you take the same kid and instead of separating him from the video game by the television and controllers. Now they all react to these things, and as parents you probably already know this. Kids get really worked up. They can spend hours on these things getting into the game because they want to beat it, get to the next stage or level. But virtual reality is the next step up.

In virtual reality, they immerse their entire self into the game and actually become part of the game. As long as they have this helmet on, they can do a 360-degree turn and feel like they are in the game. But they are now in another reality. Is it possible, (and I already know the answer to this) that these games are going to move our kids into a place where they are now creating portals because of their focus that they could then pass through or someone can come in? Is it possible that they could pull in a multidimensional being from somewhere else because their focus and intention in playing the game creates the reality? Then it's real for them. That means that they are experiencing all the emotions, all the focus, all the intent as if they were awake creating abundance, joy etc. There wouldn't be any difference, except one would be an absolute manipulation or when you are not in a video game you are consciously making choices.

This is something we really have to pay attention to, because our kids are wide open. They don't have all the scepticism and experience of all the bullshit we do. They are wide open and when they focus on something they are locked into it. Like a 16 year old that wants his first car. He is locked into that. He wants those keys and his licence. He wants to get in that car and turn it on and go somewhere with his friends. That burst of freedom. This is no different. And in looking at this, I had an opportunity to talk to a parent, who has got a kid that uses an i-phone. She said that her child would rather be in that reality than in this one because he hates to do chores. Is it possible that this could be something we need to watch? That they could be using the kids to create back doors to open portals and draw something in. Now the kids just think it's a game until it actually manifests. It's something we need to watch because there is no difference between creating something positive and creating physicality and doing this. The difference is with virtual reality the game is leading you to a place where in real life experiences lead you to a place. But you are consciously making decisions and not being sucked in by a game. We have to pay attention to that. I think that this is really worth watching.

8 0:28:20 FINDING LIFE ON SATURN'S MOON

NASA is all excited about expecting life on Enceladus (one of the moons of Saturn). I can tell you that they will find microorganisms and other things. But the secret space programme has already shared some of this knowledge with them. So it really isn't that much of a surprise, but it will be a surprise to humanity that they already know. They've already been given the heads up of places to look because the secret space programme's already been out there.

9 0:28:58 RUSSIA'S TELEPORTATION SYSTEM

Russia's creating a teleportation system like that of 'Star Trek'. But the US Air Force has been doing that at several military bases especially the Air Force bases for years. They are able to move things over 100lbs now from one place to another on the airbase using this teleportation system. I'm not aware that they've been doing anything that is living yet. But anyway, this has been going on at Groom Lake they are doing this. They maybe even further along at Groom Lake.

10 0:29:37 VACCINES & PATENTING DNA ALTERATIONS

Something else that is quite interesting too. There are several new vaccines that are coming out. One of them is said to cure and prevent cancer from ever occurring in the body. Now what's interesting about this is that if you take this vaccine, it alters the genome of your DNA. Now this genome that is in the vaccine is synthetic. In the test studies, it alters the DNA of the subjects. It makes an observable change and reverses DNA. Those that are paying attention, I don't have to tell you about pharmaceutical companies. You already know. But apparently there are one or two that are trying to patent this change of our DNA. So they want to patent the altered changes in our DNA once we've been given this vaccine or the vaccines to come. So now we get to the question of ownership again. So maybe they have decided that there is no way we can control everybody. It's not going to happen. But if we can give everybody a shot of the vaccine and get this synthetic genome into everybody's body and it alters our DNA, then we would own at least portions of their body.

This is corporate fascism. This is the new world order, and we are getting it from all sides. I'm not going negative field here, but what I have to do is make you aware of all the different angles that they are coming at us from. You have to know this. We cannot let down our guard at all.

This is why it is so important that we are creating a positive field and what it is that you want. Because if your frequency, as we continue to pass through the galactic plane, is rising with the harmonic of the galactic plane, we will move completely out of this negative field zone. They won't even see us. Do you understand? I'm not calling it ascension. What I'm saying is that you know how sometimes things are right in front of you and you just don't see it. That's because it's vibrating at a different frequency and place than you are. Your mind just doesn't see it. This is something we need to focus on. We need to keep our frequency high and keep holding the frequency of the light here on the planet so that they won't see us. If they can take each other out, that would be really great and save us a lot of headaches.

There's talk about trying to patent the genetic changes in our bodies as a result of the DNA tweaking. It's really quite hostile, but none the less that's what's going on.

11 0:33:41 US LEADERSHIP ELECTIONS

Those who are watching the world's political body, can't help but notice how messed up it is. This is something Plato said 2500 years ago.

'If you do not take interest in the affairs of your government, then you are doomed to live under the rule of fools.'

Okay. I don't think I need to say anymore than that.

Those of you in the United States who have been following the former Secretary of State and her escapades, it's just messed up. Things are really, really bad. So we have to pay attention to what's happening and at least be the observer if nothing else. Even if we don't emotionally or physically get involved, we can still create what we want. We can still focus on what we want – a government that is responsible and reacts to the needs of the people and not that of the bankers and corporations. We can still intend that because that is where it's going to really change on a spiritual level.

We can change that frequency here and the rest of it, and all the other bullshit will go on away because they will not be able to stand the frequency, as they are negative field. They do not operate the same way. They don't want the light. They want power. They want control over others. This is why it is so important to hold that frequency of what it is you want of love, of humanity, of brotherhood.

Whether you physically get involved in these politics and affairs at all, if you change your frequency, you will only draw to you that which is a light frequency. That is how it works.

12 0:36:26 THE GALACTIC PLANE

Now the Galactic Plane, it is lit up like a Christmas tree. It is pure light and a booster. The synchronicity of all these things happening; and everyone saying 'we don't want this'; being forced into a position to take back their power because the politics is so screwed up that it's obviously warped and demented and way wrong for everybody. It only serves the 1%. It doesn't serve the 99% of humanity at all.

So let's do it. Don't worry about having to make everybody happy. It's never going to happen anyway. I can tell you. I've given myself away for years. It never made a difference and made anyone happy. If they're not happy, it's because they're not happy. It doesn't have anything to do with you or me. You are not responsible for their happiness, they are.

Don't carry fear. I have experienced that in the past for myself. Focus on positive light. Don't carry the past with you. You have to let it go. Let it fall away like a scab so that you can heal and move on. Your future is in front of you. It is not behind you.

13 0:38:21 ATLANTIS

Now this next piece is really very interesting, and I'm quite excited about it.

Several years back, some Russian fishermen found some structures between the western coast of Cuba and the Gulf of Mexico, and they were at the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean at 2,200 ft. There were pyramids, structures and sphinxes etc. Well apparently there's been a lot of study going on for over 10 years. It has also come out that during the Cuban Missile Crisis, that one of the navy's submarines ran into the pyramids. So they knew they were there, but they were in the middle of the Russian Cuban crisis so they discounted the location of it, and focussed on the tasks in hand.

Well apparently through some internal documents, they have been referring to it back and forth over these many years since then as Atlantis. And apparently there has been a great deal of excavation and research going on down there at the same time. They are claiming that this is Atlantis. Now what's interesting is that there are roads and structures leading into the Bermuda Triangle that they say they are following up on. But I'm sure they've already done that and it's led to many other startling revelations.

My point is this. Atlantis was real. It was a very advanced civilisation here on earth. It is no longer myth or mystical mumbo jumbo or new age horse shit. There is physical proof that it was real, and ladies and gentlemen, that's our ancestry. We can all know this. And they were not all ET's. There were some that came and went. There was mentoring going on back and forth. There was at a point where the spirituality became replaced by science, and the science became political. That's when everything went to hell and became negative field, so much so that outside influences such as the Pleiadians were so upset with what was going on here that they threw a meteor at it. I would think they must have been pretty pissed off about something, but that's for another conversation.

We as a species achieved a higher civilisation than what we currently have. How did we get there? Now there are obviously lessons to be learned including how not to screw it up once we get back there. But it was real, so we can 'own' it.

We are not these monkeys that they've tried to tell us we are. We are not a mistake and I have no doubt that many of us (not all of us) came here physically as part of a star nation that didn't originate over here. This I know for a fact. So not only does the disclosure of the discovery of Atlantis rewrite all of human history (i.e. humanity is 5400 years old). It's just nonsense. But it rewrites all of humanity and will change the way we view ourselves and who we think we are which is a good thing because we need more perspective. There is no doubt that some of us came here as star travellers. This is all very, very positive.

This is peeling the lid off the amnesia that the dark side has tried to create for all of humanity for thousands and thousands of years. They've taken us to this place where we would hate each other. Where the colour of your skin makes you better than another. And I bring this up because of what is happening in Dallas, Minnesota, Baltimore, Chicago... History is loaded with omissions, deceptions and outright lies, because the victor always writes history.

Part of the civil war was black polish man did you know that? Did you know that after the civil war and the reconstruction of the Mississippi, which had a joint racial population and government, created the first public schools? Did you even know that? They don't teach us any of that stuff and here we go again with the race card.

Folks. A house divided cannot stand and the whole key to literally stopping this new world order in its tracks, is a sound, resolute population in the US. We're the only ones left. We are. That doesn't mean that other nations can't do what they do and resist this tyranny like Great Britain just did in leaving the EU. Bravo! They absolutely refused to sell out their country and allow politicians they did not elect to take over and run it. Bravo!

Life is about experiencing and creating joy and having the freedom to create your own joy. That's what we need to focus on.

14 0:46:27 CONCLUSION

As events continue to manifest, and time appears to be speeding up faster and faster, I can tell you that the reason it feels that way is because of the merging of these time lines. This has to happen. And at some point in the Galactic Plane, there can only be one timeline.

The benevolents are absolutely aware of which is the correct, authentic one and they are doing everything they can to make sure that is the only one. It's a difficult dance, because we all have free will. I wish they would just tell everybody. They could give everybody the same dream and say this is what it is and you'll wake up going 'Wow!' That's the way to make this work or at least get everybody talking about it without scaring the dickens out of 80% of the population who walk around mostly in amnesia. But at least it would get them thinking about what's going on.

I know it's hard and we are all struggling with stuff, families, work, homelessness, prosperity or lack thereof. But if it's any solace at all, it's that you are not only here, but also on another timeline. You're also in other dimensions. So there is more of you than what is just here. If you can just pause for a moment and remember that there is more than you than is right now listening to me. If you could focus your intent on connecting to the more of you, you won't feel so powerless or overwhelmed. I want that for everybody. I really do.

Questions & Answers

1 0:49:37 Q Is Alex able to comment on the email I sent him yesterday in regard to the EU President 'Juncker' and his reference to ET's/other planetary leaders in his statement?

AC No. I don't know if I even have the email frankly. I get between 300-500 emails a day. Can you resend it marked 'as per Q&A'?

2 0:50:44 Q You have discussed the conditions that enabled the founding of the USA and mentioned there was a 300 year period with little to no ET contact to make the USA possible. Are there any other details you would care to share that could help us understand the way forward?

AC That's a really good question. Well for one, the population that was here was mostly indigenous, as you know. However, the indigenous people do have legends of the sky people and there are some tribes who talk about having extended, but relatively short conversations with the sky brothers. As far as I know, that was roughly it.

It could be that the focus was more on Europe than any other place. Now let's take a look at that. Although there was relatively little going on here in the states in that regard, let's go back to Europe and the many stories of children being visited and proof in art about the plague and flying space craft spraying that over the city which later became the plague. There are many stories throughout the world of star ships.

In China, there were stories of several emperors saying 'why are those stars moving?' The wise consultants of those days said 'It's because the wind is blowing and making the stars move', but in fact it was spacecraft and there was a lot going on all the time.

Has there been a lot of interaction between the common people? No, I don't believe so. I believe that what was happening was that they were certain cultures or civilisations such as the Sumerian, the Babylonian, the Chaldean, the Egyptian, where there was contact because of bloodlines. That information was never shared with the common people, ever.

We have the same thing in Germany, perhaps e.g. Saxe-Coburg's (Windsor's) etc. So it may appear that nothing was going on, but it wasn't common knowledge in any shape or form.

But here in the states, we have those legends. Most of which have been completely discarded and dismissed. So there were things going on, but not as prevalent as it is now because you had a smaller population. Now you have a very large population where you have this incredible focus of intense energy. Conscious energy has the ability to change the landscape of our galaxy in a very positive or negative way. That is why we are getting so much attention.

Q In the webinar last month, I spoke to you about my son. Recently he had another experience where he was transported to a ship and was viewing a galactic battle, which for him seemed like hours. Is there a galactic battle raging now?

AC Yes. Michael will you send me your phone number. I've been saying for years that there's a lot of stuff going on out there. It is especially around the perimeter, just inside the asteroid belt, where it is now. Before then, it was much further out. Essentially, the purpose of this is to make the space that the regressive's forces occupy very small as this will make them begin to freak out on each other and take each other out. It never fails. That's the plan.

Q Can we talk a bit about dreams? I tried lucid dreaming for a while but it gets all a bit shaky or doesn't last long. I also tried seeing my guide and the person just smiled and that was the end of that. I also have lots of dreams about fighting giants. What are your thoughts?

AC Well if you've had lots of dreams of fighting giants, you're clearly dreaming and I don't mean 'dreaming' dreaming. You're obviously in another place. The question is, are they black and white or are they colour? If they're in colour, you're in another place - you're travelling and you need to know the difference.

You have to remember that if it is in colour, before you go to bed say I'm going to look on my ring on my finger. Programme yourself to do that. So when you go and leave your body and you're in that place and it's colour, you will remember to look at your ring. That will remind you that you're awake in your dream. That's where you can travel and create anything you want and it will manifest so fast your mind will spin. This is because now you're on a higher frequency. Now you are clearly in 4th density, and it's easier to create physicality there than it is down in 3rd.

You can pull it to you and you will manifest it very quickly up here so it comes to you a lot sooner. That will trigger you to remember you are awake in the dream. Then you can travel. You can go and visit anyone you want. It's extraordinary, because you are already multi-dimensional. There's a part of you already out there. You can call upon a portion of yourself. Maybe the wisest portion of yourself will come and sit down and talk with you. Now it may not look like you, it may be something completely different than what you are expecting. But if you intend that only the portion that is you, comes to you, that's what you'll be. I hope you're good with that.

Q We humans have various portions of ET DNA. Some have more Drac, whilst others seem to be contact with living alone in a tribal setting. Will this energy wave neutralise the dragon within? What will happen to the draconian implants that we carry until the next phase?

AC My understanding of how this works is that when we pass through the Galactic Plane, those who remain in physicality will be absolutely positive field. So whatever you're carrying that is not positive field will burn away. Especially if it isn't yours. When we move through the Galactic Plane our DNA will change. Most of our DNA isn't even turned on. Only about 15% of it is turned on. When we move through this field it is supposed to be turned on. You will not be the same person you are now. You will remember the person you are now, but you will be a completely different person. You will be so empowered with the knowledge, wisdom and the idea of what is right, that any influence you have that isn't yours and vibrate to what your intention is, will just burn up like dust.

Q Could this also be referred to as the wall of fire i.e. we go through the wall of fire and become cleansed and purified.

AC You mean the Galactic Plane? In essence? You could absolutely say that. It is a spiritual purification.

Q Have the A's ever spoken with you about the 'flower of life' and 'sacred geometry' and also about the great white feathered birds or angels and archangels.

AC I don't know if it was weeks ago, that I received several emails from someone using the flower of life geometric shape and they were having a horrible, horrible time with it. Now I've not ever used those myself because I was never guided to use those. So what I was able to share with this person (a woman) is to just put herself in a simple perfect sphere and do her work in the sphere. That way all the focus was on what she needed to do for her. She wasn't put all this energy into trying to maintain this very elaborate geometric shape. Her focus was on what she wanted. Which is what I've been guided to do since I was little because this sphere was perfect. Maybe you want to focus trying that to reach a zone. Everyone wants do things their own way and differently and there's nothing wrong with it if it works. If it doesn't work and it's too hard, then break it down and do something simpler. There is no shame in it. The goal is to get where you want to be and not carrying all the baggage. Focus on what you want to do. Who you want to become and who you are. That's where your energy should be. It's common sense to me.

7 1:05:37 Q Do you have any suggestions on how to get together in real time? Lots of people feel very isolated or have their head in the sand. They need support and companions. (JP I would say find some chat rooms on the internet where people are in to your stuff like wolfspiritradio.com or alexcollier.org.)

AC I don't know. Who has time for a chat room? As far as the website goes, that's James' call not mine. But as far as being isolated, I don't know. I don't think anyone has to be isolated if they don't want to be. There's always a way. The space between all of us are usually the things that aren't being said. So in order to illuminate that, we need to communicate more. I guess there are all kinds of ways. Wolfspiritradio.com, you've already started that haven't you?

JP Yes, lots of connections. It's very friendly and people are good. We have forums and all sorts of places you can ask. There are others. It's a growing family of people.

8 1:09:13 Q I have re-discovered that 256 star languages (376 if you include earth interestingly enough). Can any of you lovely beings think of some use for any practical use for this knowledge for the collective?

AC Alien linguists are at the very front of the line here. A lot of us should be talking to him (laughter). Email me again. I don't think we should get away.

9 1:10:34 Q Do you have any new information on what was found on the archon ship that was captured in 5th density and trying to escape?

AC I have asked the A's, and they've not mentioned anything.

JP They're probably less than molecules already.

10 1:11:09 Q Do you have any tips for deactivating archon etheric implants please? If not, can you ask the Andromedans?

AC The violet ray. Tesla created a violet ray at the turn of the century. It was used up until the 1930s as a healing instrument for all kinds of things. There are people who still sell and manufacture this technology. That will also get rid of the current alien implants as well. You run it over the area, and it will dissolve that technology and it will be absorbed and passed out of the body. The Tesla coil violet ray.

JP I think you can even buy them on ebay. If not, maybe we should start selling some.

11 1:12:09 Q Do you know when the timeline actually culminates? When is this wall of fire event?

AC I want to know this. I have not been told. I'm not sure they actually know yet, because this situation is so floaty. There really aren't any real specific timelines. Everything is event based. You are dealing with multiple holographs merging into a single holograph. Energies and beings from multiple dimensions that are all focussed on this particular timeline to get something right and make it happen in a way that is beneficial for everybody and literally creates a healing for the galaxy.

So, how do you possibly take all that and put it on a single timeline? You can't. Everything's event based. It's complicated.

JP And it's also depending on us as well. How personally moving through our timeline shifts.

AC We are actually the key component to this, and 70-80% of us are still just now awakening to these possibilities. It's actually quite fascinating. I know in galactic history, we earthlings will be in many history textbooks. Because this is an event of the ages.

JP Make sure if you are listening, keep a diary of what is going on now, because this is a historic moment and people will want to know in the future what it was like to feel this place, this time, this moment. Because I tell you, there's vibrations everywhere. How we respond to these in our day-to-day life will speed up or slow this process down.

AC That's exactly right!

12 1:14:48 Q Can a person with cancer make the transition to the next frequency?

AC Gosh, I don't know. I don't see why not. I would hope the cancer would go away. It would just dissolve. I'm holding that intention. Yes it will.

13 1:15:19 Q What can one do to intensify the connection to source?

AC For me, it's being in nature. What I look for is the silence within the silence. Because when I can get to that place, I hear the frequency. I hear the hum of all that lives. When I can hear that hum, I can attach myself to it. I'm not talking about HAAP. I know the difference, and you will know the difference because if you are evolved to the place where you know your own frequency, you will know the hum of all that is. It's absolutely unmistakable and your body knows, because it remembers. And your soul knows because it's still part of it. That's how it works for me and what I strive for. I don't know what your circumstances are, but that's what I do. Nature's very important here.

JP I'm getting more connected here with animals and nature. I've got these 2 chickens, and I can really feel the interaction between them. I can almost hear what they are talking about.

AC Is there a chicken whisperer in there? (laughter)

JP I'm a chicken whisperer now. As we're going towards the Galactic Plane, we are discovering all these amazing qualities. But yes, here's the chicken whisperer! (Laughter).

14 1:17:50 Q Have you ever heard of 'John of god'? How is he able to perform such miracles?

AC I don't know, you will have to ask 'John of god'. I have a hard time just getting into New Mexico, never mind South America.

JP On the healing thing, you've spoken about this before. The holographic camera that the Andromedans have that can photograph your hologram and superimpose it until the person's healthy. Does it work on a planetary world?

AC Yes. The programme has to be a minimum of 3 star ships and essentially what they do, is they use the technology itself, and the whole of the ship beams the frequency to the planet. They strategically place themselves at different places around a particular planet, let's say earth. They turn on the harmonic/the frequency/the memory of earth at its healthiest point. It doesn't matter or change the current life that is on the planet. What it does, it takes all the life on the planet. It doesn't take it back a million years ago, but today and take the frequency at the most natural healed state. They turn it on with 3 or 4 ships or more and create a field and put the earth in a sphere with this vibration. What it does is it reawakens the earth to that frequency. Once she has absorbed enough of that frequency and harmonic, they cut it off, and now she remembers. And everyone on and in her remembers. So there is a simultaneous healing of everything at that moment. We are all one because we are all of the same frequency. So now we are all talking/mirroring each other because we are all the same frequency.

JP The day of 'at onement'. The day that everybody know god and us. A day of disclosure. It's about whom we are, isn't it.

AC That would be all of our first birthday. (Laughter).

15 1:21:24 Q What effect will travelling through the Galactic Plane of the nefarious AI technology. Will we be rid of it once and for all?

AC We should be. I don't know that it could even go into the cloud. In fact my understanding is that with other star systems, the nefarious AI technology is hovering about the Galactic Plane. It's not even entering it at all because it can survive. So, it will be dealt with in a different way.

16 1:22:11 Q Can you speak about the Photon Belt and the role it is playing in our new earth?

AC I don't know that there's any difference between the Photon Belt and the Galactic Plane. They are one and the same. They are just calling it different things.

17 1:22:30 Q You are a manifestation of what mentoring humanity looks like. Can you help us imagine what a holographic government or service to the people actually looks like? How do the Andromedan's see this idea?

AC Wow! That's a huge question. Can we talk about it on the next webinar?

18 1:23:06 Q Does Alex have any thoughts or comments on the opening ceremony for the Gothard base tunnel in Switzerland?

AC No. I don't know anything about it.

JP Basically people are asking you about things that have been going on in the last couple of weeks. It's just been so weird. We saw a woman who went out and bought some McNuggets and she started hissing like a reptile and violently slashes the window. OMG! She was obsessed with getting chicken McNuggets. It was like something out of a strange comedy horror movie. That's the old timeline folks.

19 1:24:39 Q Are all of the walk-ins currently off our planet?

AC No. Why would you even ask a question like that? No, I know several. They're here, slogging away just like the rest of us. I think they'd rather be off right now.

20 1:25:16 Q Regarding the assimilation of our multiple soul fragments functioning in multiple dimensions and realities, how do we achieve synergy of these soul fragments into one unified consciousness?

AC Wow! That's a multiple answer. Where you are right now is where you need to focus. Now when you look at yourself as a multi-dimensional being and you can actually connect yourself on a spiritual level to all of your multiple parts, there is and will always be a single place where there is a point of assemblage. Here, all of your realities come to a place where they connect to your higher self. Knowing that it exists will help you in finding it.

21 1:27:04 Q If you look at the situation from a biblical point of view, would you agree that we are indeed in the end times? If so, are we in the final years or at the end?

AC My take on it is that no, this isn't the end times. It may be the end of a lot of bullshit. It may be the end of a way of life that hasn't served humanity and was destructive to humanity and to the earth. I can see it in that light. But I am incredibly optimistic about humanity once we have moved through all the stuff and we've achieved spiritual enlightenment on the other side. I'm incredibly enthusiastic. I don't see this as the end of anything. I see the beginning of a whole new chapter for humanity. That's how I see it and that's what I'm focussing on. I'm not focussing on the end of anything. Why bother? If this is the end, why bother doing anything? The new beginning is right in front of us.
